Comments from our users:

“In tracking our submissions this year we can attribute nearly 50% of those who submitted films to our festival, heard of us through FilmFestivals.com. Quite an impressive record I would say!”

Mark Marvel, Festival Program Coordinator – Sarasota Film Festival

“A mighty fine and informative website you have, I’m going to check in with your’s before Variety’s from here on. We’ve been deluged with calls from people requesting to enter the Chicago Film Critics Awards Festival which they found out about on FilmFestivals.com...”

Dann Gire, President & Founding Director Chicago Film Critics Association

Your site is a tremendous resource for Film festival directors, programmers, and filmmakers.

Don Franken Method Fest director

Filmfestivals provided half of our entries, doubling last year ‘s figures

Gregg Schwenk Newport beach film festival

Submissions for ShortFest are indeed numerous and international. It appears that we will be processing almost 3,000 submissions.

Thanks for all of your help!
