

Call for Entries: Sehsüchte 2013

From April 23 – 28, 2013 the 42nd International Student Film Festival Sehsüchte will present films by students and amateur filmmakers from all over the world in Potsdam-Babelsberg, Germany. Notable jury members will award prizes totaling up to more than 50.000 Euros.

Accepted for submission to Europe's biggest student film festival are short and long films. Selected films are eligible for prizes in the categories fiction, documentary, animation, music video, children's film and youth film.

In addition, films from any category can be submitted for this years Focus with the topic „excess“.

All students, young filmmakers with their debuts and amateur filmmakers are eligible to participate.

Please pay close attention to the festival rules and the technical requirements regarding accepted screening formats and digital data media.

Submission: Find the online registration form and other information on our website www.sehsuechte.de

Entry deadline: January 31, 2013

We are looking forward to your submissions!

Your Sehsüchte Team