Sven Alexander Heinrich Wins The Indie Fest in February 2012

(La Jolla, CA, 02/27/2012) – The Indie Fest is proud to announce the latest winners.

The awards go to those filmmakers who produce fresh, standout entertainment and compelling documentaries. The Indie Fest is an international awards competition, and is developing a reputation as a top tier competition. It honors professionals, established and emerging, who demonstrate exceptional achievement in craft and creativity. Annually, a special award is given to a production that makes a significant contribution to social change or humanitarian effort. Go to www.theindiefest.com for more information.

Thomas Baker, Ph.D., who chairs the international competition, had this to say about the latest winners, “The Indie Fest is not an easy award to win. The judges were pleased with the exceptionally high quality of the entries. The goal of The Indie Fest is to help the winners of this coveted award achieve the recognition and distribution they deserve.”

Award of Excellence

Sven Alexander Heinrich (Mexico), El Amante del Padrino (The Godfather's Lover), category: gay/lesbian/transsexual

Sven Alexander Heinrich, graduated student from the Centro de Capacitación Cinematográfica, has won a prestigious Award of Excellence from The Indie Fest. The award was given for Sven Heinrich's exciting short film, El Amante del Padrino (The Godfather's Lover), which describes the fate of a sect leader's lover. This short film production features exceptional atmospheres and insights into disturbing spiritual contexts.

"I feel very honoured by the brave decision of the judging committee of the Indie Fest to give The Godfather's Lover such a recognized prize. My approach when shooting this short film was never commercial but merely oriented and inspired by strong personal concerns. I would love to contribute to a dawning of consciousness regarding our present conditions, which keep maintaining relevant the principal subject treated in Goethe's Faust and in the biblical Exodus (second book of Moses, 32: the worshipping of the golden calf)."
